Caregivers Professional Resources (CPR) can save the life of your loved one by being your single resource for all your care-giving needs. Whether you are the adult child of an aged parent, a family facing relocation, a parent with a difficult pregnancy or any other life challenge, we have more than 100 categories of business professionals ready to help – NOW.

Pre-screened, reliable resources

Why is CPR the ideal resource? Because every CPR member meets stringent membership requirements. Beginning with a comprehensive background check, our members are carefully screened to ensure each is a legitimate and highly qualified leader of the business community. Each member is ready to meet your unique needs in a prompt, courteous fashion that will allow you to rest easy in the knowledge your loved ones are being cared for.

CPR's free online directory has more than 100 categories offering a variety of services.

You no longer have to gamble by fumbling through a phone book hoping to pick a good company. We've already done the hard part for you.

By choosing a CPR member company, you know that company is the best in its field.

Business

CPR is also the premier resource for business. Our members meet regularly – to share resources, create new relationships and enhance their services. By joining forces, whether at CPR's "Evening for Caregivers" or through establishing their own cooperative ventures, our members help each other to grow.

In these challenging times, CPR helps your business to "Get Working."

CPR's support team is there to help your business. Our members have access to such services as website development, photography, public relations, law and real estate. Even the smallest businesses can get the high-quality professional help they need to succeed at rates they can afford.
